Dear Mr Rose:

I received a gross of balls yesterday.
I am writing to ask you please to arrange to have me billed for them as of May 1st.

In going over my stock last week, I found a gross of balls that I had forgotten ; they were left from last season. Wasnt that a break. As a rule when I have a large ammount like that left at the end of the season I send them back, and get credit, but last year, I was sick at the end of the season and that must have caused the overlook.
I am telling you this so you will not be wondering why we do not order more balls.

Did you receive my order for socks and caps? Please arrange to bill me for them May 1st also.

Very Truly Yours
